

Toys That Teach

Toy Design Worksheet

Not needed for a storybook

Name of Participant: _____ Category: _____ Junior _____ Senior/Occupational

Bring two (2) copies of this completed worksheet to give to the evaluators prior to your oral presentation.

Name of Toy:	Child Age Group:	Category of Play:
Developmental and Educational Needs: How does this meet the developmental and educational needs of the selected age group?
Demonstrates a Lesson or Skill: Describe the lesson or skill that you anticipate will leave a lasting impression.
Appeal: Describe how this will appeal to children of selected age group, and to adults who may recreate or purchase for a child.
Supplies: List the common, everyday items used to create the toy.
Safety: What safety concerns did you address in design and construction?	Suggested Storage and Care:	