

Michigan FCCLA

THE B's of STAR EVENTS

- BE neat – First impression of your project is important
 - BE sure all posters, displays, manuals, etc. are as attractive as possible
 - BE sure your file folder is correctly completed
 - BE original – This is the time to bring out your best qualities
 - BE sure the content suits the event
 - BE able to relate the project to Family and Consumer Sciences
 - BE enthusiastic about your project
 - BE prepared to answer the questions
 - BE sure the rules are followed to exact specifications
 - BE able to explain how you used the FCCLA PLANNING PROCESS
 - BE prepared to explain which purposes are related to your project
-